

Community Ambassador Brief

Role overview, outreach tips, and safety practices

Mission

Ambassadors help gather, uplift, and connect stories in their communities. You'll invite participation, host simple circles, and share resources that honor people's experiences.

What You'll Do

- Share the project locally (schools, libraries, faith centers, groups).
- Host story circles using the Guide.
- Support safe, dignified participation.
- Submit stories (with permission) to the Threads page.

What You'll Get

- Facilitation guide and prompts.
- Outreach scripts and materials.
- Peer support from other ambassadors.
- Recognition and certificates (optional).

Outreach Tips

- Lead with purpose: connection, healing, and shared humanity.
- Keep requests small and clear (one easy next step).
- Offer options: "share a story," "listen," or "help host."
- Follow up within 3–5 days with gratitude and next steps.

Sample Email

Subject: Invitation to a Story Circle

Hello [Name],

I'm an ambassador with Threads of Connection, a community project where people share real experiences in a respectful space. We're hosting a small story circle on [date/time] at [place/Zoom]. You're warmly welcome to join — sharing is optional; listening matters just as much.

With care,
[Your Name]

Safeguarding & Inclusion

- Obtain consent before sharing or recording stories.
- Use inclusive, non-stigmatizing language.
- Provide access info (ramps, restrooms, online captions).
- Have local support contacts ready for difficult moments.

Event Flow (At-a-Glance)

Step	Notes
1. Welcome & Agreements	Confidentiality, opt-in, timing, passing.
2. Warm-up	Light prompt or pair share.
3. Main Round	2–4 minutes per person; pass allowed.
4. Reflection	Appreciations; no cross-talk.
5. Close	Grounding; gratitude; next steps.

Reporting & Follow-up

After an event, you can log participation and any requested support. Here's a simple template:
